

Wishbone Ash, It Started In Heaven

You left by the highway
You took everything you owned,
Trying to find a little peace of mind somewhere.
You made up your own mind
So don't ask me how I feel.
You blew me away
What more can I say to you?
Don't let a mystery show
Fool you all the time
Better still, don't come between the lines.
It started in heaven
But finished with rock'n'roll;
The sun went down
You just turned around to go.
You couldn't take what I had to give
I couldn't give you any more.
You made up your mind
Don't ask me how I feel.
