

Wishbone Ash, Right of Wrong

Like to have you 'round
With all the lies that you make,
The things or darkness and you.
Some people say, have just a taste.
Right or wrong, you might get burned -
What you gain is what you learn.
Got one too many women,
Don't know quite which way to go.
They're all gettin' so expensive
When they walk by themselves.
Right or wrong, don't regret,
What you went for is what you get.
No point in bitter tears
When someone else has cut you down,
'Cause there's a time for leavin'
And there's a time for stickin' around, hey.
Right or wrong, you've got to live,
So what you collect is what you give.
