

Wishing Chair And Kara Barnard, Morning Star

All the sleepy heads
Have gone to bed
There's so much left unsaid
The stars are bright
Oh it's such a night
Now you do your time
Always to work by nine
Come on in, the waters fine
It seems a crime
To waste the wine

Could you stay up late?
These songs won't wait

Bright morning star
That's who you are
That's who you are to me
Bright morning star
That's who you are
That's who you are
Bright morning star

Outside in the fields of green
Dragonflies are spiraling
Skating on a silver dream
I believe in love
And not in things
Every nation, every town
We are made of common ground
Rescued from the lost and found
Have you heard a sweeter sound?

Could you stay up late?
Our lives won't wait

Bright morning star
That's who you are
That's who you are to me
Bright morning star
That's who you are
That's who you are
Bright morning star

Lets leave this city and slip away
We'll live to sing another day
The rain can wash our sins away
Like the weeds
We're planting seeds
Peeking in the moonlight dawn
We'll find the strength to carry on Right back home where we belong
Oh, home where we belong

It's not too late
This love won't wait

Bright morning star
That's who you are
That's who you are to me
Bright morning star
That's who you are
That's who you are
Bright morning star
