

Wishing Chair, Precious Ruby Reds

Oh you precious ruby reds
Won't you have pity on me please
You got me at your beck and call
I'll get down on my knees
If you'll just show me where to fall
I'll be your humble devotee
I'm hopeless, sunk, I've given up
Have mercy on me please

'Cause I can't stand it
When you're near me
I die when you're away
I've lost all sense of reason
You control my destiny

Oh you precious ruby reds
You got me coming back for more
You got me at your beck and call
I'm poundin' down your door
For one more taste I'd do just anything
I've lost all self-control
I'm hopeless, sunk, I've given up
Have mercy on my soul

'Cause I can't stand it
When you're near me
I die when you're away
I've lost all sense of reason
You control my destiny

Oh you precious ruby reds
Don't you be holding back on me
I've gotten used to drinkin' from you
Lord it sets me free
I can't imagine life without you
Tranquilize me please
I'm hopeless, sunk, I've given up
I need some sweet relief

'Cause I can't stand it
When you're near me
I die (she dies) when you're away
I've lost all sense of reason
You control my destiny
