

Wishing Chair, Undisputed Country

In our undisputed country
A land of love and dreams
Where you and I walk gently by
Each other's side free
In our undisputed country
There's room to make mistakes
Where hearts can mend and sometimes bend
But never have to break
This place of love is timeless
You lived there as a child
And there's a woman wise
Who shares the eyes
That I am seeing now

There's no need for pretending
Just be the one you are
A changing thing with a light within
As bright as any star
In our undisputed country
We'll sleep in each other's arms
We'll sing our songs and grow strong
Safe from any harm
In our undisputed country
A land of love and dreams
Where you and I walk gently by
Each other's side free
