

Wisnu, Every Part Of Me

Is it wrong to say I love you.
Is it wrong to say I need you too.
Is it wrong to want to be with you.
Cause baby I do.
Is it wrong of me to feel this much.
All I need from you is just one touch.
So let me know you feel the way i do.
Tell me it's true.
Cause every part of me is longing to love someone,
To hold someone.
I waited patiently not knowing where I belong.
I'm hoping for someone new, that someone is you.
Loving you just seems so easy.
It's an endless possibility.
Lay it on the line, do it right this time.
In the end it will make you mine.
Cause every part is me was longing to love someone,
To hold someone.
I waited patiently not knowing where I belong.
I'm hoping for someone new, that someone is you.
There's nothing else to talk about.
I know at times things just get crazy.
But you and I just fit together baby.
Now I know what I feel inside, you and I can make things right.
Ooh..
Cause every part of me was longing to love someone,
To hold someone.
I waited patiently not knowing where I belong.
I'm hoping for someone new, that someone is you.
