

Witchery, On A Black Horse Thru Hell... galloping hard fear in my eyes whipping the creature down between my thighs thunderous sound rumbles close from behind closing the gap and me they shall find the hooves hammer hard on the trail i've got the devil on my tail on a black horse thru hell a demon snarls the posse from hell a sulfuric wind tells me to beware me a man who has sold his own soul racing thru flames to flee from this hole

the hooves hammer hard on the trail

the jaws of death snap at my feet will i be able to burst thru the gate i cling to my saddle and say my last prayer now i am trapped in the evil eyes glare

the hooves hammer hard on the trail
