

With Faith Or Flames, The Abomination

armored in black he appears feeding off anguish and fear
the horror has only begun
the power of Moloch has come

"Galatea, you are now done.
I am the one who is taking control.
Do not resist, for all will soon learn.
Impericia will watch as you burn.

The Owl awakens my hunger for souls.

...
I thirst to absorb for my power to grow.

None of them could understand
That once I was merely a man.
Tormented with no regard
Before finding the Morning Star.

It gave me this power.
It made me this monster.

At first my heart was still pure.
The sick I would offer a cure.
Their loyalty soon would be mine.
Their essence would feed me in time.

A toast for the Counsel,
The broken body of Cianan.
A gift for you Rexus
Before I feed the power.
Your time has come.

Now I shall vanquish you here
Just as the public draws near.
Vasilis, your eyes will now see
Of your childrens' new destiny.

Galatea, you are now done.
I am the one who is taking control.
Do not resist, for all will soon learn.
Impericia will watch as you burn.

The Owl awakens my hunger for souls.

...
I thirst to absorb for my power to grow."

and as the Rexus is burning away
the power of Moloch has started to fade an image of dread washes over his face no way to explain why he now is afraid

the aura of Kael Urian is now in range of the one who came to enslave humankind who now leaves Vasilis behind

"I will return with war!
I will devour you all!"
