

Within Silence, You & I

I had time for tears that changed nothing
I had time to make my dreams come true
Now I stand in line
By faith I've seen our God
He made me strong to face the enemy

I've looked into your eyes
Seen your darkest side
I am reaching for you now
Believe me

You and I
In dreams You're coming
Your love is mine
I will seek the truth
You and I
Your grace is stunning
It breaks me down
I know what You can do

I've seen it all around
I've been to this place before
No more lies, nothing to say
It took so long for me to realize
That my night has turned to day

Hold my life within Your hands
'Til my days are done
A touch of blessing on my skin
Believe me

I feel I've been found
I've heard a wondrous sound
Don't look back
I am reborn
