

Without A Cross, The Black Hole

A sudden prayer for the hopeful
Is all we have
Never gave a moment
Where we gave back
To me in all you know
This is not you
I know what is real
But I can't take it

Fire burns through my soul
Taking control
Life as it is
In the black hole

It shines on me like I need it to
Feed the fire now
To take the crown from the king
Will to shire now
If I gave you the world
Would you give it back in vain
Never ask for hopefulness
For your greed can't take another day

Take me from my shackles
They blind me in their lies
They lead me to the castle
So I can peacefully die
