I wanna do it all for, all for, all for you
I wanna do it all for, all for, all for you
I wanna do it all for, all for, all for you (Okay)

Make your decision, usually I use my intuition
Rolling that weed, I'm on a mission
My eyes low, still paying attention
Ball hard, illest in my division
Better than all the competition
Set shot, puttin' my wrist in
Don't ball hard, learn how to dish it
Good from up close or distance
Make a million dollars in an instant
You get it all if you stay persistent
Now foreign countries, we be paying visits
Speaking of paying, lately, I've been playing with digits
So much coming from these words, it's making 'em nervous
Ain't a thing by chance, everything you see on purpose
Stayed down, became a boss, stayed real and observant
We always sticking to the code and my team is determined
We always keeping something rolled, hit the weed, don't get nervous
I'm thinking it's perfect, I'm constantly working
I think I deserve it, so I think I'ma purchase

Roll 'em as tight as I can
Who would've thought I'd grow to be the man?
Stick to the code, everything go as planned
Need in advance, straight biz
Won't give you a chance to hit us with that song and dance
Fifteen hundred dollars on some pants
I get the same chicks with some cut-off shorts and a pair of Vans
Pull up, ask her what she got planned
We pull off as fast as we can
Car so fast, hope you see it again
I usually be with fam, usually be stacking them grands
Built it all with my hands, run it back and replay it
Went from students in the game
Now me and my brother run the faculty, wrap around balcony
Painting in the living room look like a masterpiece
Rollin' up them joints, that's a thou' a piece
Me without trees is like a convict without the streets
Got a crib without the lease, I get a plate, my niggas feast
