

Wiz Khalifa, Dreams

Lil niggas gotta sit down or get down, yeah

'24, Chevy, this shit for the big dogs
Lil dog you sit down, my dog keep big rounds
"20, I wanna lick you like you ice cream"
Fell in love with marijuana, I'm a big fiend
I took Cash under my wing 'cause my dog got potential
Bad bitch, independent, why would I control her?
Money gettin' larger and it feel I'm gettin' older
I just poured a Four in a pineapple soda
Jimmy Carter, ATL, we used to run the big door
Me and Ricky ruled back when we would do the kick doe
Boosie, that's a big dog, and I respect that Money where my mouth at, and lately that's where my check at
My niggas never been the type to try to back down
Vibes at the crib, Dolla $ign in the background
"20 you know YG, can we go to Bampton?"

Too much McQueen, it's gon' really turn to somethin'
Believe in your dreams, you could really turn to somethin'
Too much McQueen, it's gon' really turn to somethin'
Believe in your dreams, you could really turn to somethin'

Okay, got 'em upset
Half a hundred M's, that's in one check
If you ain't talking money, switch the subject
If you ain't talking money, switch the subject
Only rep the gang, that's one set
Knew she was a hoe, she just ain't done it yet
If you ain't talking money, switch the subject, yeah
Convertible Vette, got my name in the headrest
Put my feet up, smoking a J, let my legs rest
Shorty say I'm on her mind, headset
You and her suck me up, y'all both neck and neck
You get mad when I cuss you out in public
Could have that life, it's the hustle you in love with
Every other day, make sure the bank get deposits
All blue ragtop riding down Slauson

Too much McQueen, it's gon' really turn to somethin'
(Rose gold AP and that bitch bussin')
Believe in your dreams, you could really turn to somethin'
(Whole p of KK, just got it through customs)
Too much McQueen, it's gon' really turn to somethin'
(Seven hundred horses wanna race? I'ma dust 'em)
Believe in your dreams, you could really turn to somethin'
(All my lowriders sittin' up like it's doing crunches)
