

Wizard, Hammer, bow, axe and sword

A hammer made of unbreakable stone

A bow made of black wood

With a string of white light

An axe made of silver, gold and diamonds

And a sword made of steel

Tempered in the sea of the gods

Hail the new lords, chosen by the dragon lords

Hail them, who are fighting with the weapons of the gods

Hammer, bow, axe and sword; see the weapons of the gods

Hammer, bow, axe and sword; feel the power of their lords

Hammer, bow, axe and sword; hammer, bow, axe and sword

Hammer, bow, axe and sword; hammer, bow, axe and sword

Hammer, bow, axe and sword; the weapons of the gods

A dwarf smithed these four eternal weapons

With the help of the wizard he gave them magic power

It was a small gift for the mighty gods

But for the thunderwarriors it was the gift of power

Hail the new lords, chosen by the dragon lords

Hail them, who are fighting with the weapons of the gods

Hammer, bow, axe and sword; see the weapons of the gods

Hammer, bow, axe and sword; feel the power of their lords

Hammer, bow, axe and sword; hammer, bow, axe and sword

Hammer, bow, axe and sword; hammer, bow, axe and sword

Hammer, bow, axe and sword; the weapons of the gods

Hail the new lords, chosen by the dragon lords

Hail them, who are fighting with the weapons of the gods
