

Wizard, In the sign of the Wizard

When you feel the strong winds you can feel the power of the gods. And you see the magic man riding on his black horse. Yeah with him they are coming:

The legion of doom.

With power and glory we are fighting for the gods.

Harder and faster, together we are riding.

In the sign of the wizard we are on the way.

In the sign of the wizard we'll bring the change.

In the sign of the wizard.

See the flag covered with blood.

With blood we have sworn the eternal oath.

Make the sign, cross your arms, come with us to the gods.

Raise your fists and fight for it that your dreams become real.

Hear the gods are calling you. They will give you their mighty energy. Fear the wizard and hear him now. For then you will see the light of the gods.

Stand together as one man. Don't let anyone oppres you.

We will not run and hide away. Noone on earth will ever change us. With the help of our gods we will come to the promised place.
