

Woe, Is Me, With Our Friend[s] Behind Us

I bet you never thought we'd get this far,
But in the end we won't give in cause that's just who we are,
I still have so much left to say,
So my best advice to you is stay the fuck out of our way!

We will never back down, never give in,
No matter what it takes, always believe in,
That when you swallow your pride, and put all shit aside,
We'll be the ones standing in the end,

When you hit the road you left without wasting any time,
You remembered your clothes, but left your spirit behind,
And at night when you're alone inside your head,
Don't pray for sympathy, no, pray for a miracle instead,
You're feeding me excuses and they're making me bitter,
Don't raise a fuss, just keep it up, cause no one likes a quitter,

Just when you had us all figured out,
There's always one thing you forget about,
So we'll teach you a fucking thing or two,
Of what it means to see shit through,
We'll stand our ground!
Right here, right now,
With our friends all behind us,
And this vengeance inside us,
We will tear you down!

[Caleb Shomo:]

Your promises are a hollow shell,
I look for the truth, you're lies won't fulfill,
Past your answers aside of me,
You can't put a price on my dignity,
Bury your motives, bury your pride,
We are the dreamers?
We are the dreamers?

Someone once told me that time is gold,
So don't sit and watch it all disappear,
Because those dreams you own can never be sold,
These dreams are what brought us here,
So fuck everyone else, just believe in yourself,
So find your place, no time to waste,
Cause it's like they say, life just isn't fair!
