

Wolf, The Bite

Restless roaming screaming in the dark
Twilight maniac hunting the night away
Blood-thirst predator, bloodline of Lucifer
Red-eyed raging sadistic terrier

The hunger I can't hide
Is burning in my heart
Never satisfied
And I'm looking for

The bite
(The thrill of it all)
The bite
(The heat and the blood)

Headless mindless furious beast
High tech lunacy, reversed psychiatry
Black mass hellion, backward necromancy
Crusading death diplomacy

The hunger I can't hide
Is burning in my heart
Never satisfied
And I am looking for

The bite
(The thrill of it all)
The bite
(The heat and the blood)

Light, can't stand the light
I have seen it and hate it, it burns and it makes me blind
Days go by
I just sit in my room and just wait for the night to come

Days, I hate the days
They fade away like edges in the haze
Night goes by
I just sit in my room and fear the dawn to break

Restless, roaming, screaming in the dark
Twilight maniac hunting the night away
Blood-thirst predator, bloodline of Lucifer
Red-eyed raging sadistic terrier

The hunger I can't hide
Is burning in my heart
Never satisfied
And I'm looking for

The Bite
(The thrill of it all)
The Bite
(The heat and the blood)

Bite

The Bite
