

Wolfsheim, Real

Now that I am back out there
Once more scared Misgivings haven't gone inside this human race
No touch of grace and still no place to go

I know it's up to me to decide if this is real but I'm walking and fro always thinking about the ways I chose

Welcome back yesterday ... not far away ... I'll keep an eye on you Tell me how could I forget all the angers I once had Should I start again ... to find the same ... that I once left behind When tell me why should I forget all these dreams that I still have Another time ... another turn, I thought but now I know that's wrong This life will still remain the same if I don't change a thing myself

I know it's up to me ...
