

Wolftron, Defeat Of Starman

Starman tries to be the hero when everyone's already got their own plans.
Starman tries so hard to fight the storm but never does the things he says he can.

What breaks you down?
What breaks you down?
Wake up and go onto the other side.
Oh, turn off your backroom light.
No one can see you anymore.

Can you tell me now that fate doesn't see when your soul shakes back to younger times.
Or are you still afraid tonight?
