Wolfy, Bel Can'to

And all the while I thought I'd be true to you
But now you've change and I don't think I do
Daggers fly across the room
Right by me and you

I never thought you'd up and go away
The expression kills that's now on your face
If I've hurt you I suggest you go
Go away

And all of the time you thought we knew
Who we are, who we are
Taking our time as we find
Who we are, who we are
And I can't see why it becomes so hard
Every time we fall apart

And all the while I thought I'd be true to you
But now you've change and I don't think I do
Devils fly across the room
Right by me and you

And all of the time you thought we knew
Who we are, who we are
Taking our time as we find
Who we are, who we are
And I can't see why it becomes so hard
Every time we fall apart
