

Won Ton Ton, Beautiful Smile

Tell me where are you going now
Hey love are you feeling well
Flowers keep on growing
As they've always done
Changes without knowing where to belong
I feel like a dog that is mindlessly chewing his bone
There's only one thing i am sure of, i'm alone

Sailors watching out for a skyline
Foggy mess - i may not cherish this past of mine
Just say goodbye beautiful smile

Your days have been long enough
I know they were tough
These seven years of sighing
They hurt my soul
The whole world keeps on lying
I just don't know

Sailors watching out for a skyline
Foggy mess - i may not cherish this past of mine
Just say goodbye beautiful smile

Hey
Goodbye bye
I say goodbye
