Wonder Stuff, Some Sad Someone

I'm sitting watching all the merry people go by, So once around the park before I die. I hate this jealous feeling and I want to cry, So once around the park before I die.

Don't say that you are sorry, no.

It was when she walked away I thought to myself,
Was it worth all the worry and THE risk to my health.
And the opening line of every song that I heard,
Told about some fella having trouble with his girl.

And don't try to console me, I don't wonna know.
