

Wondermints, Time

(D. Sahanaja - B. Kassan)

Time, I see you wasting all this time,
But it's not mine. It's your dime.
Time, I see you running on the line
And it's not right to fear the light.
And all the things you said, you understood well.
The past is gone
And there's no welcome in your eyes.
Time, I feel you wasting all this time
And it's a crime. It's so sublime.
And all the things we did, you understood well.
We can't deny. There's no hiding this disguise.
Oooh, gonna let you down
Oooh, gonna let you down this time.
And I'll be fine.
Oooh, let you down.
Oooh, gonna let you down this time
And never pay you mind.
Time, I think you're running out of signs
To join with mine. It's so unkind.
And all the things we said, you understood well.
We can't deny and there's no welcome in your eyes.
