

World In Motion, Because I Love You

I'll be by your side girl,
You never have to turn your back on me,
From the bottom of my heart,
i love you.
As i look back to my mind, and think of all the times,
We shared cant compare thought you ll always be right there
You and me one on one, 'till death do us apart
I must admit i was crazy about you, from the start
First my heart, was broken then you mented all the pieces,
Your nephews, your neeces, cant hold it release this,
Increase this, power from the warmness of your charms
I lay my head across your breast as i rest, in your arms
Because i love you,
And i 'll do anything,
I 'll give you my heart, my everything
Because i love you,
I 'll be right by your side,
To be your life to be your guide
There can never be another woman who can take your place, again
I get cool pimpels everytime i see your face,
Can't erase all the times, you stood by my side,
Can't hide, typical man, try to shake this pride
That i have, sometimes i laugh, it's too legit
You always loved my music you said one day it will hit,
Thats why what i do is for the future me and you
Build a house on the sea and we can make a baby too
Because i love you,
My heart's an open door
Won't you please, come on in,
Because i love you,
I 'll be right by your side,
To be your life, to be your guide
Till death do us apart,
I 'll take you, to be my love for at it, lover,
If there's anyone who sees that these 2 shouldn't be together, speak now, or forever hold your peace..
As you listen to tha "LARGE" one injection to the fame,
I give everything coz i swear i feel no pain
Can't complain we were lovers ever since we were in school,
Is been 10 years, and i m still the same fool
Who's in love with you i place no one above you,
I wanna be the only man who rubs you,
Increase this power with yhe warmness of your charms
I lay my head across your breast as i rest, in your arms
Because i love you,
My heart's an open door
Won't you please, come on in,
Because i love you ,
I ll be right by your side,
To be your life to be your guide
There can never be another woman who can take your place
Because i love you
And i 'll do anything
I 'll give you my heart my everything
Because i love you
I 'll be right by your side
To be your life to be your guide
Because i love you
My heart's an open door
Won't you please come on in
Because i love you
I ll be right by your side
To be your life to be your guide
