

World On Edge, Standing Push And Fall

Hello lovely lady
Can I see you smile,
Catch it from the corner
Of my wandering eye.
Move a little closer,
Until you touch my sin,
You can be forgiven.
Of a story, laced within.
I know one day, oh now, you'll come in.
I know one night, you'll disappear.
What can I do, what can I say.
(chorus)
It's standing, push and fall
Oh that's all it is
I jump the gun each time you call
Standing, push and fall
Oh, that's all it is
I jump the gun each time you call
I stand, you push and then I fall
That's how it is, it's all the same
Praying wouldn't help me,
I say it on my knees,
Heaven's just an angel
For broken hearts to breed.
Webbed yourself around me
Tangled me with skin
Kissed me with your poison
Now here we go again.
I know one day, oh now, you'll come in
I know one night, you'll disappear
What can I do, what can I say.
(chorus)
