

World On Edge, Words Touch The Sound

Oh the night falls with the rain
I hear you step behind me
I can't remember what went wrong
Or am I too blind to see
(chorus)
Don't go away and leave so many words unspoken
When the words touch the sound
I remember what I said
When the words touch the sound
I can hear the tears that were shed
I hear the echoes in the wind
I turn my head to see them...oh
And I'll never understand
Why I hurt the one I need
(chorus)
