

World Wrestling Entertainment, Chris Jericho "

I'll never see any side of heaven
I've walked for miles through a blazing hell
It doesn't matter what you think I'm supposed to be Because I myself know all too well

I'll open your eyes and make you see

I'm the king of my world
(King of my world)
I'll break down the walls around you now
I'm the king of my world
(King of my world)
I'll break down the walls around you

Like the Walls of Jericho
Like the Walls of Jericho

My mind alone is filled with rage for you
I am the pastor to your sheep
I am the master of my destiny
I am the king of all I see

(King)
I'll open your eyes and make you see

I'm the king of my world
(King of my world)
I'll break down the walls around you now
I'm the king of my world
(King of my world)
I'll break down the walls around you

Like the Walls of Jericho

3, 2, 1, here I come again, come again
3, 2, 1, here I come, here I come again
3, 2, 1, here I come again, here I go
3, 2, 1, here I go, here I go!

I'm the king of my world
(King of my world)
I'll break down the walls around you now
I'm the king of my world
(King of my world)
I'll break down the walls around you

I'm the king of my world
(King of my world)
I'll break down the walls around you now
