

World4another, Rise

Talk to me
speak with me
change my life
in one voice
stir me up
into your love
lift me up
to your place above

above this
i know i can rise
i know you can shake me from this
from the life of sereality strap me in turn the key

undo my hate
undo my sin
free me from
this cage of mine
undo the fold
that keeps me blind
