

World4another, Take Me Away

take me away
so i might see your light and your glory
lead me astray
from this evil way i want to see your glory i want to see you glory

i lift my hands to you
i sing this song to you

take us away
so we might see your love and your mercy
take us away
lead us astay
from this we all pray
we want to see your glory

oh lord take this burden from me oh lord, breathe your spirit in me
