

Wumpscut, Body Parts (radio edit)

My darling was crying and I was denying
The pain is gone the war is won soldiers on the field
My crimes my crimes and the bell it chimes
I trooped through peaceful nights peeling his dead eyes sold to you
Their bodyparts I dealt after the days of fights

At my price at my price body parts for sale body partsBodyparts for sale bodyparts for sale
At my price muscles brains jaws and veins stomach bones jaws and toes
