

Wumpscut, Forgive Me

A night like other
A night like you know it
You can't see me as I wander
The night you run through

For your life for body
To escape from me bitch
To escape from my hate
To escape from my fun

Don't you laugh about me the man
Who's your destiny

Don't you laugh

I get closer to you
To smell you I'm under the spell
Of your beauty of your hair
Of your body so wonderful
And ass you see in the pale light
My white countenance my face
Full of the scars of former deed
I tell you girl take my advice

Don't you laugh about me the man
Who's your destiny

Don't you laugh

The time has come I'm ready
The slaughter screams I'm ready
The time has come I'm ready
No girl screaming anymore in eternity

I never wanted to be your destiny
But you were pretty and so alone
Now you're lying here so motionless
In my arms and in my lap
You are so cold now you are dead
Be glad my child no sorrow anymore

And forgive me for what I've done
Forgive me for what I've done
And forgive me for what I've done
Forgive me for what I've done

Forgive me
