

Wyatt, Justine

C'mon baby
I will always remember
I will always remember you as a child
And it's crazy
To think that you've grown up
To think that you've grown up on me now

What you want
Is what you will live for
What you need
Is what I can't give you

But things can only get better
Better
But things can only get better

C'mon baby
When you say I don't love you
I have more than adored you all this time
I have watched you
The way that you wanted me to
I've seen all your landscaped
Through different eyes

And all your ups
That you just can't get used to
Get you down
They hurt and abuse you

But things can only get better
Better
But things can only get better
Things can only get

When your soul is in the lost and found
I will hold my breath and turn around
I will wait for you forever I
Won't ever let you down

When you're blown away by rain and storm
You've got me to blame it on
Well maybe when you need to get your faith restored
Well maybe, things can only get better
Better
Things can only get better
Better
Things can only get better
Better
Hold on, better
Yeah
