

Wynn Stewart, Cheating Is In Style

The widow woman kind and sweet goes with a husband down the street
Each day I pass I see her smile oh it looks like cheating is in style

The neighbor's husband travels round and has a girl in every town
A little love for every mile oh I guess cheating is in style

The neighbor's wife across the street goes with any man she meets
A stranger came and stayed a while oh it looks like cheating is in style

I heard a talk all over town they tell me that you're running round
I heard the news and the gossips wild oh I guess cheating is in style

But if all the thing they say you've done I don't believe a single one
You love me and you know that I'll still be true though cheating is in style

Yes you love me and you know that I'll still be true though cheating is in style
Is in style