

Wynn Stewart, Daddy's Girl

Everybody knows she's daddy's girl
A little doll that keeps me in a whirl
And means more to me than all the world
She's daddy's girl
Look at her and anyone could tell
That little bit of heaven fell
She means more to me than all this world
She's daddy's girl

She resembles me a lot I know
From her curly hair down to her toes
But speaking at someone who knows
So much of her mother shows
But I say she's daddy's girl
A little doll that keeps me in a whirl
And means more to me than all this world
She's daddy's girl

She resembles me a lot I know...
