Sing that same song again sing it over
I wanna feel that same mood again so sing it over
I heard it first when she was mine sing it over one more time
Though she's gone it was our song so sing it over
It's all I have between her mem'ry and now
And when it plays I feel her with me somehow just like now
Don't let it end let me pretend though I know every line
Sing that same song again one more time
It's all I have between her memory...
