

Wynn Stewart, That's The Only Way To Cry

That's the only way to cry that's the only way to cry

Seems like a million tears ago I stood and begged you not to go
I had to run away and hide it was just too much for my pride

That's the only way to cry when you're all broke up inside
The one you love just said goodbye that's the only way to cry
(steel)
But that was many tears ago now we both love each other so
And I'll never let you go there's different kinds of tears we know

And that's the only way to cry happy tears fall from your eyes
When you're in love like you and I that's the only way to cry
When you're in love like you and I that's the only way to cry cry
