

Wynn Stewart, Unforgotten Man

She remembers his first kiss in the night of the dance
She's reliving they joys of young tender romance
She'll never forget him cause she never can
Each woman has hidden an unforgotten man

And she worries about him and if he's all right
He's in her thoughts every day and in her dreams every night
She blushes in silence and sees her gold wedding band
But she goes right on dreaming of an unforgotten man
(steel)

Yes she worries about him and if he's all right
He's in her thoughts every day and in her dreams every night
I know cause I love her and I understand
Cause I'm the one in her dreams I'm her unforgotten man
Yes I'm the one in her dreams I'm her unforgotten man
