

Wynn Stewart, You Kiss Me Like You're Waving C

I was a fool to ever think that you could ever really love me
And believe those love letters that you signed
Your kisses are much colder now and feeling is believing
And I believe you got a new love on your mind

Cause you kiss me like you're waving goodbye
Just the touch of your sweet lips makes me wanna cry
You'll never stay here in my arms cause kisses never lie
And you kiss me like you're waving goodbye
(steel)
Yes you kiss me like you're waving goodbye...
