Wynn Stewart, You Kiss Me Like You're Waving (

I was a fool to ever think that you could ever really love me And believe those love letters that you signed Your kisses are much colder now and feeling is believing And I believe you got a new love on your mind

Cause you kiss me like you're waving goodbye Just the touch of your sweet lips makes me wanna cry You'll never stay here in my arms cause kisses never lie And you kiss me like you're waving goodbye ( steel )

Yes you kiss me like you're waving goodbye...
