

X Ambassadors, Everything Sounds Like A Love

Now everything
sounds like a love song
Now everything
I thought I knew was wrong
cuz now everything
sounds like a love song
now that you're
gone 3x

I've been on a dead road chasing signs
turn on the radio
ain't nothing but sweet lies a little bit of Marvin will make a man break down and cry but u don't hear nothing like the way I feel inside

a broken promises
bank deposits
empty closets
all you let behind
polaroids and moving boxes empty pocket
no where left to hide

cuz Now everything
sounds like a love song
Now everything
cuz now everything
sounds like a love song
now that you're
gone 3x

couple kissing on the subway line everything I am missing is right before my eyes I hear Aretha
and she takes me by surprise cuz it sounds like she's singing a song about my life

drying tears and future fears and all the years rolling into none everything I hear is so insincere and it's all because

sounds like a love song
Now everything
gone 3x
