

X Ambassadors, My Own Monster

Something dangerous is waking up inside of me It's been creeping its way into my psychology Keeping me up all night, this voice inside it tortures me But it's slowly starting to pique my curiosity

Cause this world can be so cold Give me shelter from the storm And it's keeping me warm keeping me warm

think i created a monster and now i 'll never be alone again i tthink i've made myslef a new best friend it's making me stronger i created a mnster
and now i 'll never be alone again and now i'll never be the same again and no i will never pain again and i'll do what i'll do what i wanna
