

X Japan, Desperate Angel

Desperate angel fallin' from the sky
Desperate angel, now you wonder why.
In a shiXXy town, lotta' scum around,
born into a world of make?believe.
What you feel, no way it's real.
Everybody plays the game,
wanting more than you had before,
never gonna be satisfied.
Where to go, you don't know,
how is your material world?
(So won't you come beside me)
Now you're gonna get it.
(Because you know I'll set you free)
Rock you all night, does it feel right?
I'm letting you go now ... yeah!
(Well they) Sell me this and they sell me that.
Don't want none of your fuXXing crap,
(Gotta) lot to say, do it my own way.
I will never follow, cannot change, rearrange.
I don't care no matter what you say,
pay your dues, win or lose.
How is your material world?
(I'm burning, got the fire)
I am gonna take you
(You see my hot desire)
Show me your stuff, ready?
Go! Give you what you want and more!
Desperate angel, got no wings to fly,
Desperate angel, sadness in your eyes.
I wanna feel what's inside you, I want you so bad.
Forget what you've seen, and forget what you know right away.
I wanna feel what's inside you, I want you so bad.
I'll show you the way, then we'll sail far away,
paradise through the night ... No!
(So won't you come beside me)
Now you're gonna get it.
(Because you know I'll set you free)
Rock you all night. (Burning up, look out!)
Desperate angel, fallin' from the sky
Desperate angel, now you wonder why.
Desperate angel, you've had a bad time,
another lost soul, desperate angel.
Fallin' from the sky,
desperate angel, love you cannot buy.
