

X!NK, Band of friends

It began when I was still an infant
Two good friends, in the same class
They were soul mates, side by side
And then I joined them
Hey hey
He moved away, the friendship seemed lost
Then he became the chosen one
They began to play together, it clicked
And the drummer drummed
(chorus)
A band is a bond that never breaks
Not even by accident
You see, they have each other
Together they always manage
Hey hey
They met again at a party
Then the band was reunited
He walked over to him, he had a guitar
He was a drummer, no doubt about it
Hey
The band and the bond both grew and grew
Perpetual motion, no motor needed
It never broke down, it just kept on going
It never came to an end
(chorus)
The band and the bond both grew and grew
Perpetual motion, no motor needed
It never broke down, it just kept on going
It never came to an end
Hey hey hey
