

X-PERIENCE, Am I right

Am i right
am i wrong
am i weak or strong
cant you see i am burning alive
hold me tight trough the night
and i feel alright
and i know i am right
you came to me and i turned to you you spoke to me like a man should do i caught a glance of a burning eye and i knew that my dreams will come true i met you once when the sun came up the road to nowhere
when i had a rest
i met you once where the river flows >from the hills of the east to the west
