

X-PERIENCE, Beautiful day

Its years since youve been leaving
The places we were born
I wake up - Im receiving
A sign of your return
You gave me one good reason
To wait until youll come
Im waiting and Im dreaming
Were drowning in the sun

Refr.:

A beautiful day and a beautiful night
You drive me crazy when you hold me tight
I live my life so slow and
Ill walk while you will run
I slam the door behind me
The same ways you have done
The roads I walked were winding
Until you crossed my way
You gotta get back sometimes
I stay there every day

Refr.

The flowers you have planted
Are growing in the light
Theyre waiting in the backyard
I visit every night
You lead me to the backyard
To hold my body tight
I guess youll be my lifeguard
Youre always by my side
