

X-PERIENCE, Life goes on

Changes all around and everytime and everything is changed in my head i'm longing for a change i wouldn't beg but for a change i never will get i spend my time in learning everytime i learn i turn blue into red my life goes on i just wanna have fun leaving shadows into the sun i get in troeble with some friends of mine theyve told me there is no need to change we quarrel it becomes a colder time and now im freezing down to the bones nothing changes but i've lost 2 friends and that depends on changing myself
