X-Wild, Beastmaster

You'd better lock up your daughters Cause the beast is in town You know that he's trouble You'd better not be around - no way He comes with his circus He's got that evil intent And he ain't got no clowns Just a bagful of hate And I got to tell ya, you know his name He's the beastmaster - he gonna tame ya He's the beastmaster - gonna whip ya into shape He's the beastmaster - are you ready to give your life He's the beastmaster - gonna rip you out a sight He's got a pact with the devil He's got to pay off his debts A hundred town later He's got time to collect If you come after midnight He will open the cage Could you meet the beast In his orgy of rage I'm leaving this town With a hell bloody trail The corpses of conscience are consigned to hell The road's up ahead, he will see you tonight 'Cause the beastmaster's coming So get outa sight
