

Xandee, Dreamworlds

Sunday Morning
sun comes up as I wait for you a new day's dawning I know that there ain't no other
But it ain't easy doing your thing now maybe you can make me feel better it ain't easy fool if you think love has a way of lightning up my darkest day!
We're livin' in dreamworlds where all can last forever
we're livin' in dreamworlds
where everything seems better
And if we get down for worrying
I know this much is true
I'm livin' in a dreamworld, with you Sun is mourning lights go down as you come for me my body's longing for all that the night'll be bringing
But it ain't easy
going your way now where nothing here can make you feel better
it ain't easy
just you and I, but love has a way of lightning up my darkest day
We're livin' in dreamworlds
where all can last forever
we're livin' in dreamworlds
where everything seems better
And if you feel uncertainty I'm your solid ground it's like fantasy cause love has a way of lightning up my darkest day
We're livin' in dreamworlds
where all can last forever
we're livin' in dreamworlds
where everything seems better
And if we get down for worrying
I'm livin' in a dreamworld, with you
