Xandria, Dancer

She walks on the moonlit snow She's winterhearted, so you say But you dont see

She's a dancer on the glass That's broken like her past She would never flee

Fascination is her name

She is dancing in the wind Almost dancing everything Every moment of her life She is taking me with her With the music in her heart She is breaking every ice

She is talking with the world A far-traveled bird Her souls her home

See how light are all her moves Just follows her own rules But she is not alone

Fascination is her name

She is dancing in the wind Almost dancing everything Every moment of her life She is taking me with her With the music in her heart She is breaking every ice In me
