

Xavier Rudd, Food In The Belly

So go but be kind
you have luck on your side born into a family with food in their bellies and a car for them to drive People sleeping on the concrete still smile behind their signs So go now be happy and be free you, you have so much time

If you go chances are you'll come again if you come chances are you'll go so be mellow let it flow let it bend I'll see you somewhere at the end

So go but be kind
you have luck on your side
born into a family with food in their bellies
and a car for them to drive
People sleeping on the concrete
still smile behind their signs
So go now be happy and be free
you, you have so much time

If you go chances are you'll come again
if you come chances are you'll go
so be mellow let it flow let it bend
I'll see you somewhere at the end

So go but be kind
you have love, love on your side
born into a family with food in their bellies
and a car for them to drive
People sleeping on the concrete
still smile behind their signs
so go now be happy and be free
you, you have so much time

So go, go but be kind