

Xavier Rudd, Small Destinotion

Small Destination

You want to wear the coat tails
You want to be the man
Standing in my candle light
Sweating what I said
I don't want to be used
I don't want to be shared
Standing in my candle light
Waiting for my best
I said go
I won't need you now

Arrogance bleeding
Arrogance shared
Shared among the siblings loved
From one boy to the next
I don't want to be used
I don't want to be shared
Standing in my candle light
Waiting for my best

I said go
I won't need you now
